Spinal Cord Injury Research Updates... What's the Latest?

WEDNESDAY, MAY 5th, 2010 12 PM – 4 PM
Western Counties Wing Auditorium, Parkwood Hospital
801 Commissioners Road East, London

The London area is a very active centre of spinal cord injury (SCI) research projects and there is a wealth of information to share. Local researchers continue to work on projects with global connections and with the goal of improving lives by decreasing the impact of a SCI.

This forum is an opportunity to learn about the latest projects, with a focus on what's happening in London as well as some worldwide interests.

GUEST SPEAKERS: Dr. Keith Hayes, Dr. Pamela Houghton and Dr. Dalton Wolfe
